

Program Benefits

Grows Network

Build lasting relationships with a cross-sector network of housing professionals committed to advancing equitable housing across the Bay Area, and join a network of 15,000+ Coro alumni.

Enhances Work

Participants learn collaboration skills, human-centered design, systems thinking, and stakeholder mobilization to navigate complex housing systems and challenges. Workplace issues are addressed through peer coaching.

Develops Skills

By strengthening adaptive leadership and communications skills, participants grow their self-awareness, critical thinking, and inclusion practices. They build their confidence in navigating ambiguity and leading across differences.

Deepens Knowledge

Participants explore complex Bay Area affordable housing issues and gain an understanding of collaborative, cross-sector approaches to advancing housing equity. They connect with multi-sector housing leaders, decision-makers, and innovators.

Courtney Cooperman 2026 Participant

“Learning alongside a cohort of brilliant, thoughtful peers who represent all aspects of the Bay Area affordable housing sector is a real gift...I have a much clearer understanding of myself as a leader and greater confidence to take on challenges that lack straightforward solutions.”

Alison Cingolani 2026 Participant

“AHLN was invaluable not only for the tools and skills I learned from the curriculum, but for the opportunity to connect with and learn from such a broad range of smart, thoughtful, and deeply committed affordable housing professionals.”
