

Program Benefits

Grows Network

Participants join a network of 15,000+ Coro alumni nationwide and over 500 Women in Leadership alumna across California. 97% of Women in Leadership alumni agree the program expanded their professional network.

Enhances Work

Participants boost their confidence as they learn tools for adaptive challenges, advance female voices and perspectives, and receive access to regional decision makers.

Develops Skills

Through systems thinking and network building, participants strengthen their public speaking, negotiation, and team management skills. They foster community and advocacy as they develop self-awareness in leadership.

Deepens Knowledge

Participants explore current issues women face in society and within professional settings. They build a supportive cross-sector network of peers and issue-area experts to help address solutions.

Janelle Hartley Los Angeles 2019

“This was the best investment that I have made for myself. I have gained more confidence in bringing my authentic self to work. By listening to other women’s journeys, I realize that many of us face similar challenges. It has helped me realize that the challenges do not define you.”

Itcelia Segoviano-Ramirez Bay Area 2025

“Women in Leadership was exactly the development space I didn’t know I needed. The collective wisdom in the room expanded my thinking and helped me become more confident as a leader.”
