

Program Benefits

Grows Network

100% of recent ELN alumni report stronger connections. Tackle the executive “lone wolf” challenge by connecting with other regional executive and senior leaders.

Deepens Knowledge

Examine how physical spaces shape organizational culture. Strengthen resilience through practical strategies. Practice trust-building communication to enhance collaboration and effectiveness.

Develops Skills

Drive organizational change through adaptive leadership and inquiry-based decision-making. Build advocacy and foster trust. Strengthen self-awareness, leadership presence, and impact.

Enhances Work

Gain tools to tackle adaptive leadership challenges with your teams. Expand your cross-sector network while boosting confidence. Connect with regional decision-makers and executives who can become mentors.

Robert Quintero 2022 Participant

“The caliber of diverse executive peers made [ELN] that much more valuable. The program was rooted in effective and ethical leadership, which assisted me to think much more strategically, and afforded me with the tools to develop and expand my leadership mindset.”

Andrea LeBeouf, MSW 2024 Participant

“The Leadership Networking Dinners were instrumental in building meaningful relationships with my cohort and regional leaders. These interactions have not only expanded my professional network, but have also fostered a sense of camaraderie and mutual support that is often missing at the executive level.”
